

SANTA CLAUS Emporium

Opening Day, Monday,
December 2.

Largest Stock and Lowest Prices.

Santa Claus arrived on the last steamer, and has left his letter box at the EMPORIUM. All of the little boys and girls on the Islands are invited to write him a letter. A prize of a beautiful doll will be given to the little girl, and a large coaster wagon to the little boy writing the most original letter. They are to be opened Christmas Eve, and prizes awarded by three representatives from the press of Honolulu. Everybody welcome. Catalogues for the asking.

Ivory Carvings From Vienna.

Of Surpassing Beauty.

We expected them to be fine, but did not anticipate such artistic perfection.

YOU have probably noticed a few pieces in the window, and will agree that every one is perfect in execution, and the subjects well chosen.

For pieces of such perfection, the prices are not high, ranging from about Ten Dollars up to Thirty.

We are also showing this week the

Vienna Miniatures on Porcelain, mounted in pretty bronze frames, the whole being perfect in execution, and well worthy a space in your cabinet.

These pieces are exceedingly modest in price, costing only Five, Six and Seven Dollars each.

BISHOP WAXES WROTHY

tuting a standing committee be, and is, hereby amended so as to bring it into accord with the constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church, to read as follows:

Statute for constituting a standing committee, 1899. Amended 1901. Whereas, it is desirable that there be a standing committee for the diocese or missionary district to act as a Council of Advice to the Bishop:

It is by the Bishop, clergy, and laity in diocesan synod assembled enacted and determined as follows:

1.—That the standing committee shall consist of two presbyters and two laymen communicants of this church, resident within the Hawaiian Islands, who shall be appointed yearly by the bishop, and shall continue in office until their successors are appointed. Provided, that such standing committee shall have no power to give or refuse assent to the consecration of a bishop.

2.—The committee, at their first meeting, shall choose a president from among the clerical members and a secretary, either clerical or lay, giving immediate notice of the same to the bishop. The secretary shall record their proceedings in a book provided for this purpose; which book, and all papers in their hands relative to the church, shall be subject to the examination of the bishop and of the synod in convention. A full report of their acts shall be made at each annual meeting of the synod or convention.

3.—The standing committee shall be a Council of Advice to the bishop. They shall be summoned on the requisition of the bishop whenever he shall wish for their advice. And they may meet of their own accord and agreeably to their own rules when they may be disposed to advise the bishop.

4.—In the absence or incapacity of the bishop and of the bishop-coadjutor, if there be one, or if the Episcopate become vacant, the standing committee shall be the ecclesiastical authority of the diocese.

Mr. Testa presented intention to present motions to accept the report of the trustees, and that of the committee on synodical expenses.

The girly synodman also arose to move that the synod reconsider its vote on "Resolution No. 2," presented by the bishop at the first meeting, and which was passed on Tuesday after several changes had been made. The last paragraph did not suit him, as he had discovered that the wording was such that the property would be vested in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, placing stress on the word "in." To his mind it should read "in Hawaii." He thought a blunder had been made by hasty action, and some difficulty was encountered in attempting to bring Testa's amendment properly before the synod. The latter resolved itself into a committee of the whole, and the resolution was once more formally adopted with Testa's new amendment. Testa, on one or two occasions, tried to argue with himself after he had gained his point.

The remaining paragraphs of the proposed amended charter were passed upon paragraph by paragraph, and finally passed upon as a whole. The by-laws will be discussed tonight. An adjournment was finally reached at 10:30, to convene again at 7:30 this evening.

SOME TALES FROM BUFFALO

Tobin's Shooting an Advertising Scheme—Girls Received Many Offers of Marriage.

One of the recently returned members of the troupe of Hawaiians which performed at Buffalo Exposition tells several interesting stories of the experiences of the migrants to the Buffalo contract. Twelve of the men and women went to the Charleston Exposition to start a show of their own. Joe Puni is the leader of the enterprise.

Sixteen others, all vocalists and instrumentalists, have signed contracts for Keith's Empire vaudeville circuit throughout the Eastern states. Theirs is a musical act, and J. Wilson is acting as manager.

Some of the girls suffered badly from colds on account of "Spicer" Tobin insisting that they wear as little as possible in the clothing line, and forcing them to go out in the cold in all kinds of weather. Following is a sample of Tobin's "con" talk on the stand:

"Walk right up, ladies and gentlemen; walk up, and see the genuine Hawaiian beauties from the sunny southern seas. They don't wear clothes in their native land, and I call on you all to witness the ease and grace with which they conform to the customs of civilization. Don't they look nice? Walk up, walk up."

According to those of the party who returned on the Alameda, the reported shooting of Tobin by one of the hula dancers was a job put up by Tobin in order to secure some cheap advertising.

It seems that one day Tobin secured a gun, and giving it to a friend, told him to go to the top of a flight of stairs and fire two shots. Meanwhile Tobin stationed himself half way up the stairs, and signalled his friend to let her go. Two shots were fired, and Tobin raised a big rumpus about having been shot at while descending the stairs by one of the girls in the company. Tobin took care that the reporters on the Buffalo papers should not be slighted in the matter of information, and it was not long before the story was printed all over the United States.

Fourteen came back on the Alameda, including Ben Waiwale, W. Keene, H. Kaunane, and Hilo, the popular local danseuse, has joined Wilson's party. Lily Werl and Abbie Clark are now in Charleston.

The girls of the party declare that while in Buffalo they all received frequent offers of marriage from wealthy young men in Eastern cities. The seductions of pol and raw fish were too much for them, however, and the majority of them turned their backs on brilliant proposals in order to return and enjoy again a sunny, care-free existence in Hawaii.

ATHLETIC CONTEST TOMORROW NIGHT

Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium Will be Scene of Many Strenuous Exercises.

The Young Men's Christian Association's first indoor athletic meeting takes place tomorrow night in the gymnasium of the institution. The events as at present arranged, are: Springboard high jump, 12-pound shot-put, pole vault, 18-foot rope climb, rope skip. The shot has not yet arrived from the mainland, and some other event will therefore have to be substituted for the shot put. There will be three contests, and gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded for the three best aggregate scores.

The indoor baseball season starts next Saturday night, when the first game of the league series will be played. Will Kerr has resigned from the evening class team, and will captain the intermediates.

The gymnasium classes are being well attended and much good work is being done under Physical Director Young. John Boyle is leader of the seniors and Will Kerr, Jimmy Ward and Tom Evans are the lieutenants of the intermediate division.

Not much is being done by the barriers just at present, and things in this line promise to remain dull until the start of the year. A paper chase will probably be arranged to take place in a week or so, and the new year will be celebrated with a big cross-country run, in which all hands will take part.
